

Before the State of South Carolina
Department of Insurance

In the matter of:

Wynn S. Phillips,
1209 Cottage Creek Farm
Little Mountain, South Carolina 29075.

File Number 2003-119890

Default Order Revoking
All Licensing Privileges

This matter comes before me pursuant to a Letter of Allegation and Notice of Opportunity for Public Hearing served, as required within S.C. Code Ann. § 38-3-170 (2002), by the State of South Carolina Department of Insurance upon Wynn S. Phillips, by both certified mail, return receipt requested, and by regular mail on November 13, 2003.

That letter informed Mr. Phillips of his right to request a public hearing upon the allegations of impropriety contained within the letter against him. The letter further warned that his failure to make a timely, written request would result in my summary revocation of his license to do business as a resident insurance producer within the State of South Carolina. Despite that warning, Wynn Phillips has failed to respond to the Department's letter. He has failed to provide the Department with a current address in violation of S.C. Code Ann. § 38-43-107 (Supp 2002), and the United States Postal Service returned as undeliverable the letters sent by the Department. On December 22, 2003, therefore, counsel for the Department filed an Affidavit of Default, and the entire matter was submitted directly to me for my summary decision based solely on the record.

The letter alleged, and I now find as fact, that while licensed to do business as a resident insurance producer within the State of South Carolina, Wynn S. Phillips was convicted of the crime of "Contributing to the Delinquency of a Minor ", by a Richland County Court of General Sessions; Docket Number: 99GS4038552-53.

Section 38-43-130 of the South Carolina Code provides the Director or his designee "may revoke or suspend an producer's license after ten day's notice...when it appears that an producer...has violated this title or any regulation promulgated by the department, or has been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude." Furthermore, Code Section 38-43-50 (Supp. 2002) provides that in order to fully qualify to transact business as an insurance agent within the State of South Carolina, a licensee must demonstrate that he is trustworthy. 25A S.C. Code Ann. Reg. 69-23 & (6) (1989) lists the qualifications required to be licensed as a resident insurance agent. Subsection (g) of that section provides that one's criminal record will serve as evidence of one's moral character and trustworthiness. Barring intervening circumstances, a conviction of a crime of moral turpitude would clearly indicate a lack of moral character and prevent continued licensure as a resident insurance producer in the State of South Carolina.

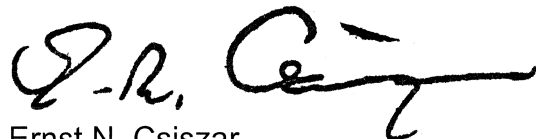

In accordance with my findings of fact, and considering Wynn S. Phillips' failure to avail himself of his opportunity to be heard, I now conclude, as a matter of law, that Wynn Phillips violated S.C. Code Ann. § 38-43-130 (Supp. 2002) and that his resident insurance producer's license should be revoked.

This administrative disciplinary order is a public record subject to the disclosure requirements of the State of South Carolina's, Freedom of Information Act, S.C. Code Ann. §§ 30-4-10, et seq. (1991 and Supp. 2002). Nothing contained within this administrative disciplinary order should be construed to limit or to deprive any person of any private right of action under the law. Nothing contained within this administrative disciplinary order should be construed to limit, in any manner, the criminal jurisdiction of any law enforcement or judicial officer. Nothing contained within this administrative disciplinary order should be construed to limit the statutory duty, pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 38-3-110(3) (2002), of the Director of Insurance, exercised either directly or through the Department of Insurance, to "report to the Attorney General or other appropriate law enforcement officials criminal violations of the law relative to the business of insurance or the provisions of this title which he considers necessary to report."

It is, therefore, ordered that the license of Wynn S. Phillips to do business as a resident insurance producer within the State of South Carolina be, and is hereby, revoked, and that no license issued through the State of South Carolina Department of Insurance is to be issued to him.

It is further ordered that a copy of this order shall be transmitted to the National Association of Insurance Commissioners for distribution to its current member states and to each insurer for which Mr. Phillips is currently licensed, through the State of South Carolina Department of Insurance, as a resident insurance producer within the State of South Carolina.

This order becomes effective as of the date of my signature below.

Affidavit of Default

Personally appeared before me T. Douglas Concannon, who, being duly sworn, stated that at all times relevant to this Affidavit of Default he was an attorney representing the State of South Carolina Department of Insurance in this administrative action. He further stated the following:

The Department served notice on Wynn S. Phillips at the address detailed above, by a Letter of Allegation and Notice of Opportunity for a Public Hearing that the Department would request the Director of Insurance to summarily revoke his license to act as a resident insurance producer within the State of South Carolina in thirty days. The Department served the Notice, pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 38-3-170 (Supp. 2002), by "depositing it in the United States mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the last known address of the person and registered with the return receipt requested." That Notice further informed Wynn Phillips of his opportunity, within thirty days, to request in writing a public hearing.

The United States Postal Service effected service of the Notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, and by regular mail, on or about November 13, 2003. Wynn Phillips has made no request for a public hearing or any other response to the Notice. The time in which to do so has expired. He is now in default.
